19. NEW BUSINESS

A. Appointment to vacant council seat G

Mayor Blair stated that the Council has two ways that they can do this, by ballot or by show of hands.

Mayor Blair explained "If the Council chooses to do this by show of hands Councilor Denmark has already showed me his hand since he is participating telephonically."

Mayor Dan Blair stated that regardless of who is selected tonight he encourages all four of the individuals who submitted letters of interest to run for Council in October.

Peter Denmark stated that having a council resignation just prior to summer is difficult timing.

Peter Denmark said "I cast my vote for Monty because he is currently involved and has been involved, we see him often in council meetings and he is up to speed on issues in the harbor, his Port & Harbor seat has also gotten him up to speed at least in part with railroad negotiations."

Peter Denmark said "I think Monty would be the strongest candidate to maintain a working Council going into summertime and I am hoping that anybody who wasn't selected by this process will attend meetings, become familiar with all the issues and be viable candidates in the next election."

The Council voted by ballot and handed them to Mark.

The outcome was 3-2 between Monty Irvin and Debra Hicks.

The Council voted by ballot again.

The outcome was again 3-2 between Monty Irvin and Debra Hicks.

The Council invoked the rule of necessity and voted one last time by ballot.

The outcome was Debra Hicks.

The Council appointed Debra Hicks to vacant council seat G.
